

€ TRAINING

International Trade Law

17 - 21 November 2024
Amman (Jordan)

International Trade Law

REF: U2130 DATE: 17 - 21 November 2024 Venue: Amman (Jordan) - Fee: 3350 Euro

Introduction:

This training program offers comprehensive insights into the legal framework governing international trade transactions. It empowers participants to confidently engage in international trade activities with a solid legal foundation.

Program Objectives:

By the end of this program, participants will:

- Master fundamental concepts and principles of international trade law.
- Understand the legal framework governing cross-border trade transactions.
- Analyze the role of international organizations and treaties in trade regulation.
- Apply trade law principles to real-world scenarios and case studies.
- Develop strategies for resolving disputes in international trade.

Target Audience:

- Legal professionals.
- Trade practitioners.
- Business executives.
- Personnel involved in international trade seeking to enhance their understanding of trade law principles.

Program Outline:

Unit 1:

Introduction to International Trade Law

- Overview of international trade law principles.
- Historical evolution and significance of trade law.
- International trade organizations and their roles.
- Key legal instruments governing international trade.

- Case studies illustrating the application of international trade law in real-world scenarios

Unit 2:

Legal Framework for Cross-Border Transactions

- Understanding trade agreements and treaties.
- National and international regulatory bodies.
- Trade documentation and compliance requirements.
- Trade finance and payment methods.
- Analysis of legal implications surrounding cross-border payment methods and currency exchange.

Unit 3:

Dispute Resolution Mechanisms in International Trade

- Overview of dispute settlement mechanisms.
- Arbitration, mediation, and litigation in trade disputes.
- Case studies on dispute resolution in international trade.
- Role of international organizations in resolving trade disputes.

Unit 4:

Specialized Areas in International Trade Law

- Intellectual property rights in international trade.
- Environmental and labor standards in trade agreements.
- Anti-dumping and countervailing measures.
- Trade remedies and safeguard mechanisms.
- Case studies illustrating the application of specialized trade law principles in practice.

Unit 5:

Emerging Issues and Future Trends in International Trade

- Digital trade and e-commerce regulations.

- Sustainable development goals and trade policies.
- Geopolitical shifts and their impact on trade law.
- Innovations in trade technology and their legal implications.
- Analysis of geopolitical shifts and their impact on international trade dynamics.