Contract Preparation and Management

REF: C696 DATE: 18 - 22 August 2024 Venue: Istanbul (Turkey) - Fee: 5850 Euro

Introduction:

Staff involved in the contracting process need to be effective and efficient in applying contract management principles and practices. Without the necessary knowledge and skills, they won't obtain the best results from contractors, service providers, vendors, and other business partners with whom their organization is doing business. Procurement and supplier management can be a hazardous process that will trip up the untrained or inexperienced manager. This conference will give those staff the foundations to manage third-party suppliers effectively - whether in the field of construction, the supply of equipment and materials, or in the delivery of services.

Conference Objectives:

At the end of this conference the participants will be able to:

- Identify and discuss the major steps involved in contracting procedures.
- Develop the scope of work and recognize the implications of a poorly prepared scope.
- Discuss the contracting strategy including pricing.
- Select contractors more efficiently.
- Recognize and practice tendering principles and processes.

Targeted Audience:

- All those involved in any step of contracting; also involved in managing or administering contracts for them to have a full understanding of the contractual provisions they will be managing.
