

€ TRAINING

Strategic Communications and Advanced
Internal Communications in a Political Environment

3 - 7 November 2024
Cairo (Egypt)

Strategic Communications and Advanced Internal Communications in a Political Environment

REF: X2587 DATE: 3 - 7 November 2024 Venue: Cairo (Egypt) - Fee: 5985 Euro

Introduction

Effective communication is a cornerstone of political success, particularly within parliamentary environments where the stakes are high and the audience is diverse. This comprehensive 10-day program is designed to equip political communicators with the tools, techniques, and strategies necessary to excel. It delves deep into the nuances of strategic communication, emphasizing the unique challenges and opportunities within parliamentary contexts.

Program Objectives:

At the end of this program, participants will be able to:

- Develop advanced communication skills tailored to the needs of parliamentary environments.
- Strengthen internal communication frameworks to ensure cohesive messaging and collaboration.
- Prepare participants to handle communication crises effectively.
- Improve media engagement techniques to shape public perception and policy understanding.
- Refine public speaking skills for impactful presentations and speeches.
- Enhance strategies for engaging with various stakeholders.
- Perfect the art of crafting clear, persuasive, and consistent messages.
- Foster a culture of feedback and continuous improvement in communication practices.

Targeted Audience:

- Members of Parliament and legislative staff
- Communication directors and officers in political offices
- Public relations professionals working within the political sphere
- Political advisors and consultants
- Government spokespersons
- Media liaisons in political environments

Program Outline

Unit 1:

Fundamentals of Strategic Communications

- Understanding Strategic Communication in a Political Context.
- Key Principles and Best Practices.
- Analyzing Communication Channels.
- Identifying Key Messages.
- Case Studies of Successful Political Communication Strategies.

Unit 2:

Developing a Communication Strategy:

- Setting Communication Goals and Objectives.
- Identifying Target Audiences and Key Stakeholders.
- Creating a Comprehensive Communication Plan.
- Resource Allocation.
- Monitoring and Evaluation.

Unit 3:

Internal Communications within Parliaments:

- Importance of Internal Communication for Political Cohesion.
- Tools and Platforms for Effective Internal Communication.
- Best Practices for Maintaining Transparency and Trust.
- Internal Communication Audits.
- Creating Internal Newsletters and Bulletins.

Unit 4:

Crisis Communication Management:

- Principles of Crisis Communication.
- Preparing for Potential Crises.

- Post-Crisis Communication.
- Case Studies of Crisis Management.

Unit 5:

Media Relations and Public Engagement:

- Building and Maintaining Relationships with the Media.
- Strategies for Effective Press Releases and Media Briefings.
- Engaging with the Public through Traditional and New Media
- Media Training for Political Spokespersons.

Unit 6:

Public Speaking and Presentation Skills:

- Techniques for Persuasive and Impactful Public Speaking.
- Overcoming Common Public Speaking Challenges.
- Using Visual Aids Effectively.
- Practice Sessions and Feedback.

Unit 7:

Digital and Social Media Communication:

- Utilizing Social Media Platforms for Political Communication.
- Creating Engaging Digital Content.
- Managing Online Presence and Reputation.
- Analyzing Social Media Metrics.
- Engaging with Digital Communities.

Unit 8:

Stakeholder Engagement and Management:

- Identifying and Prioritizing Stakeholders.

- Strategies for Effective Stakeholder Communication.
- Building Alliances and Managing Stakeholder Expectations.
- Conducting Stakeholder Meetings and Consultations.
- Feedback Mechanisms for Stakeholders.

Unit 9:

Crafting and Delivering Messages:

- Principles of Message Development.
- Techniques for Clear and Persuasive Messaging.
- Ensuring Consistency Across All Communication Channels.
- Tailoring Messages to Different Audiences.

Unit 10:

Feedback Mechanisms and Continuous Improvement:

- Establishing Feedback Loops in Communication Processes.
- Analyzing Feedback for Continuous Improvement.
- Creating a Culture of Feedback and Improvement.
- Future Trends in Political Communication.